Hay re-elected to HSA Board of Directors

April 19, 2018

HSA members in Region 6 have re-elected Nancy Hay to serve a two-year term as their representative on the union's Board of Directors. The term begins at the conclusion of the union's annual convention on April 28, 2018.

Hay is a social worker at St. Paul's and Lions Gate Hospitals, and has chaired the union's Political Action and Education committees, in addition to serving as an active member of the CESA, COPS and Resolution committees.

The other candidate for the board position was Theo DeGagne, a psychologist.
