Nurses Bargaining Association reaches tentative agreement

November 27, 2018

A tentative three-year agreement has been reached between the Nurses' Bargaining Association (NBA) and the Health Employers Association of BC (HEABC).

The tentative agreement addresses key priorities and protects nurses' ability to provide safe, quality patient care.

HSA's representatives to the NBA Bargaining Committee, RPN Nicole McIntosh and Senior Labour Relations Officer Alyson Warner, will present the details of the agreement to the HSA Board of Directors, and members will have an opportunity to vote on the terms of the tentative agreement in the coming weeks.
