HSA welcomes CDC health services and support workers

Fifteen employees at Fort St. John Child Development Centre joined HSA in February. These new members work in health services and support at the Fort St. John and Fort Nelson sites of the Centre in administration and child care.

Welcome to new member at Cedarview Lodge

HSA successfully varied the certification at Cedarview Lodge to include a social worker in the bargaining unit. Congratulations!

Welcome to new members at Cameray Counselling Services

The 24 new members at Cameray Counselling Services work at three sites in Burnaby and New Westminster. Most of these members work as counsellors at this community social service agency. Some of the crucial services they provide to their communities include sexual abuse counselling, a sexual health intervention program for children with sexual behaviour problems, and family counselling.

The members at Cameray also offer an innovative residential historical abuse program, providing counselling for adults who suffered abuse in provincially funded facilities.

HSA welcomes new members at North Island AIDS Coalition

Congratulations to seven new members at North Island AIDS Coalition! These new members work in harm reduction, education, support, outreach, and nursing at four sites in Courtenay, Campbell River, Alert Bay and Port Hardy.

HSA now represents 50 AIDS resource workers across the province, at AIDS Vancouver, AIDS Resource Centre (Okanagan & Region), and now at North Island AIDS Coalition.
