HSA Annual Report 2014 now available

March 10, 2014

In preparation for the 2014 Annual Convention, HSA's Annual Report is now available for all members to read at <http://www.hsabc.org/about/annual-reports>.

Featuring executive reports from HSA's president and director of labour relations and legal services, reports from HSA's committees, audited financial statements and a full list of resolutions submitted to the upcoming convention, the Annual Report provides members and the public with transparency and operational accountability.

The upcoming convention will also consider resolutions to amend the HSA constitution; the proposed amendments related to Resolution 1 are provided in a document called "Schedule A", and you can read it online as well:
