

Madden Memorial Education Fund

Know your rights.

Sharpen your skills.

Boost your confidence.

The Madden Memorial Education Fund provides all HSA members with financial support for labour relations and self-improvement courses. The course must have a labour education focus. Areas of study include:

- occupational health and safety
- employee rights
- labour legislation and labour history
- communication skills
- assertiveness and leadership skills

On site and correspondence courses offered by universities, colleges, school boards and labour organizations are eligible.

CRITERIA AND PROCEDURE

All members are eligible for financial support from the Madden Memorial Fund. Funds are applied to course costs, registration fees and materials, childcare, transportation, meals and accomodation. The Fund will compensate for up to one day's wage loss associated with course attendance.

Application forms are available at hsabc.org. Successful applicants are reimbursed upon course completion.
