

CANADIAN SOCIETY FOR TRANSFUSION MEDICINE CONFERENCE VANCOUVER

2010 is not only about the Winter Olympics in Vancouver!
This year a national conference about Blood Transfusion and Balancing Science and Life will be taking place here May 13-16, 2010.

There are many fantastic scientific, clinical, and management presentations, as well as some lifestyle and wellness activities.

Are you a Manager, Nurse, Physician, Researcher?

Although blood is the focus, this conference is not just for transfusionists!

Here are just some of the highlights:

- Bringing Home the Gold: The 2010 Olympic Experience
- Transfusions in a War Zone: Lessons from Afghanistan
- Don't Let Your Blood Boil: 7 Easy Steps to Boost Your Energy AND Find Balance!
- Obstetrical and Neonatal Concerns
- Research is Cool: Hot Opportunities in Transfusion
- Brain to Vein Transfusion: Impacting MD practice
- Do you order blood?? Here's the Top Ten List for Docs who Order Blood
- Project Management Mini Boot Camp

Have I mentioned the exceptional social events?
