Scholarships and bursaries available for HSA members and their families

HSA is offering scholarships and bursaries to all members and their children. Ten scholarships will be awarded for full-time studies, twenty bursaries for full-time studies and four bursaries for part-time studies. Two aboriginal scholarships will be awarded to aboriginal students in BC.

The criteria and details are set out on the application forms. To obtain a copy please see the HSA website: www.hsabc.org

Completed application forms and transcripts must be mailed to the HSA office and post-marked no later than February 29, 2012. Successful applicants will be notified by letter before the end of May, 2012.

In addition, the Madden Memorial Fund is open to members to fund approved labour educational courses in labour relations, occupational health and safety, human rights and leadership skills throughout the year. Professional development courses are not eligible for Madden Memorial funding. The Madden Memorial Fund application form is also available on the HSA website.

If you have any questions, please contact the HSA Education Department at 604-439-0994 ext. 503 or 1-800-663-2017 ext. 503.
